One of the "schemes" in the Chicago celebration is to have an immense American flag made of school-children dressed in red, white, and blue, and arranged on sloping seats, in stripes, etc., forming the flag.

More people have emigrated from Ireland to America in the past fifteen years than there are at present on that island. What did they come for? They had free trade, and, so, they must have lived in luxury, according to the Democratic platform.

If it hadn't been for a woman, America might not have been discovered for a century or more after 1492. Queen Isabella of Spain "put up" her crown, her breast-pin, and her ear-rings to rig out some old sloops for Columbus.

Almost every newspaper now-a-days regales us with an account of the trial of some minister for "heresy." It looks as if every time a minister wants to kick up a sensation, and thus get a better place at a better salary, he very shrewdly gets up some fancy touch for his religion, and succeeds in being tried for "heresy." It is a great advertising dodge, worthy of P. T. Barnum.

When this paper reaches its readers, Chicago will be one gorgeous mass of red, white, and blue. Every building which has a dignity above the hen-coop grade, will be festooned with the national colors, in honor of Christopher Columbus, the Discoverer of America, or of Chicago, the great and glorious City of Wind. The most extraordinary preparations have been making, and the ingenuity of all the astute citizens of that section has been taxed to the utmost to devise schemes to beat "anything they have in New York."

Editor Speck of the Pemberville Leader, enjoyed a dinner at his house last Friday on account of the eighth anniversary of his excellent newspaper, and the editor was congratulating himself on being permitted to spread butter all over his bread and put two spoonfuls of sugar in his coffee on that occasion. Bro. Speck has our congratulations and we hope he will live to enjoy many more such happy days. His subscribers must pay up better than some of ours do, or he would not be able to have more than one dinner a month.

America needs a popular song. "Our Country 'Tis of Thee" answers for formal and stately occasion, but it is hardly a song for the populace. "The Star-Spangled Banner" is always inspiring, but its references are to a special occasion and its tone rather martial for these piping times of peace. "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" has not sung itself into the hearts of the people. The Columbian Exposition should be the occasion for the production of a truly popular national air. Let the managers offer a good round sum for such an air and limit the competition to American citizens.—Sidney Democrat.

Every time that the Republican party has gotten up a new idea for the benefit of the whole people, the Democracy has cried it down as visionary, absurd, or as a "trap" to catch votes. With equal regularity the schemes of the Grand Old Party have proved successful, and when every body sees it, the dusty old Democracy tries to claim the honor of springing the original idea. Look up the history of every beneficial measure, and see if this is not true. Look for instances, at the Protective Tariff, The National Money, The Reorganization of the Union, Honest Money, Specie Resumption, and Reciprocity, and tell us if this is not true.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Poor old Columbus will turn over in his grave Friday when he hears the boom of ten thousand American cannon in his honor. Perhaps in turning he may rattle his chains a little, for they were buried with him, but we mustn't mind that. The world has always sat down hard on every genius who was ahead of his time.

The dirtiest thing in modern politics is the ward-heeler; the young blood who wears good clothes, seldom paid for; who struts about usually with a cane; who is present at every meeting where there is to be a distribution of money for some rascally political end, and who wins his way into the good graces of a sufficient number of thoughtless citizens to secure his election to a responsible office.

Toledo has just cause to abhor the ward-heeler in politics. Some of her councilmen have been convicted of asking for a bribe, and one, at least, has confessed that he was a "boodler." Why it is that people must be subjected to almost every inconvenience because a few young gamblers and bribe-takers must secure a living without work, is hard to determine.

There is no use in disguising the fact that city and village politics are getting to be rotten to the core, and it is high time that every thoughtful citizen should begin to weigh well the reasons for casting his vote this way or that. It is time that Democrats, Republicans, Prohibitionists, and even the "Alliance" should hunt honest men for local offices rather than political squirts who are to be rewarded for what is ridiculously considered "party adherence." To the dogs with such politics if they lead us to vote for boodlers!

Governor Ashley's campaign in Wood county is progressing favorably, and although much quietness prevails there are strong indications that a large vote will be polled.

There is much interest felt by the citizens of Perryburg and of Maumee in the election of Governor Ashley for the reason that with his well known desire for the improvement of the river, and of Fort Meigs, the people are warranted in the belief that he has both the will, and the capacity to introduce measures, and present the justice of the case in such a form to Congress as to secure a sufficient appropriation by which the improvement may be made. Such an act will accord with both justice and the spirit of patriotism in deeds of heroism which were performed in the early history of the Maumee Valley in the final conflict with the British for the control of Michigan and the Northwestern States.

The Maumee river from Lake Erie to the rapids above Maumee is in reality an estuary of the lake. It is well known that there is an influx and a reflux of water from the lake, depending on the prevalence of an easterly or westerly wind which in its fluctuations shows a difference of six feet in the level of the river at the Perryburg docks.

Mr. Ashley fully understands the facts in this matter. He is in full sympathy with the views of Ex-President Hayes, the late Chief Justice Waite and other prominent citizens of the Maumee Valley and those residing in the Southern part of Ohio and in Kentucky very many of whose relatives lost their lives in and around Fort Meigs. Their blood has drenched its soil, and their bones rest beneath it. The spirit of patriotism, and the interests of the citizens on each side of the river alike demand that action should be taken in this matter. In the Hon. James M. Ashley we have a candidate for Congress on whom we can all rely for the adoption of measures by which it may be accomplished, therefore it will be the proper thing for the people of Perryburg and of Maumee to adopt measures by which at the coming election the Governor may be endorsed by a solid vote of the citizens to show their confidence that he will accomplish the work.

ASHLEY AT BOWLING GREEN.

Ashley and Smead Address a Large Audience.

On Saturday last Hon. James M. Ashley, the Republican nominee for Congress for this district, and Hon. Isaac D. Smead of Toledo, addressed a large audience at the opera house in Bowling Green on the political issues of the day.

A large number of people congregated at the Ross House to congratulate Governor Ashley and assure him of their friendship and support in the political contest.

Among those present none were more pleased to welcome him than was the Hon. D. W. H. Howard, the Chairman of the nominating convention. Mr. Howard is one of the oldest settlers of the Northwest, and rode a 32-year old pony 25 miles from his home across the country to take the train to Bowling Green to hear Mr. Ashley speak. There were old and young men in the audience, but none were older and none younger than Mr. Howard.

Mr. Smead was the first speaker introduced by chairman Dr. J. C. Lincoln, and his speech was an excellent one.

He was followed by Mr. Ashley who electrified his audience by his eloquence and forcible logic.

The speech was listened to very attentively, and the Governor made many friends.

THE WHEEL FACTORY

Now Running with a Large Number of Hands and the Business is being Pushed.

As the JOURNAL has predicted, the Sheridan Wheel Factory is bound to be a success.

President Greene arrived from West Virginia last week with a party of capitalists who have taken a sufficient amount of stock in the company to insure having all the necessary ready money to make the business boom.

These gentlemen were well pleased with the excellent condition of the business and, satisfied there is money in it are determined to put the Sheridan Wheel to the front.

All that has been wanting to do this was sufficient capital; this is now assured, these parties being ready to put a quarter of a million dollars, or more if necessary, in the business, to make it a success.

William Sheridan superintends the factory, while D. Lampman attends to the business management and their solicitors now on the road are sending in large orders every day.

That the business will be successful is the wish of everyone, and those who are best acquainted with the condition of affairs are satisfied that it will be.

The force of workmen is being increased every day and they will soon be making 2000 sets of wheels per day.

"Seeing is Believing."
And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.
Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
